

The Charlotte Art League,
Mental Health America
of the Carolinas, Heroes
Logistics, and REDDjobb
Communications present

A SALUTE TO AMERICA'S VETERANS

Keynote Speaker:

Major General Cornell A. Wilson Jr.

U.S. Marine Corps (retired); task force commander of multinational force, Iraq War invasion; commander, 2nd Marine Expeditionary Brigade; commanding general, Marine Corps Forces Europe and Africa; commanding general, Marine Corps Forces South. General Wilson retired in October 2010 after 38 years' service.

- A free and social event honoring all veterans, military families and the public.
- Veterans asked to wear covers, colors, shirts or pins representing your service branch or veterans' organization. Uniforms optional for active duty.
- Each service branch will be represented – all veterans' organizations and all veterans will be recognized.
- Note: The 244th birthday of the Marine Corps is November 10 – Veterans' Day is November 11

November 7, 2019

5:30 p.m. (Meet, Greet and Gallery Tour)

Program 6- 8 p.m.

Charlotte Art League,

4100 Raleigh Street, Charlotte

